Subject: A New Shaw Opening: Prescription Chicken to Open New Brick-and-Mortar Location

Hi Tierney,
I'm reaching out to invite you to Prescription Chicken's media tasting for the opening of their new brick and mortar location.

I really enjoyed your recent piece, "The Most Exciting D.C. Restaurant Openings to Look Forward to This Winter," and would love to introduce Prescription Chicken as another opening your readers may want on their radar. Founded in D.C. in 2016 as a soup delivery idea, Prescription Chicken has grown into a national retail business and is now putting down roots with its permanent storefront.

The media tasting will take place Wednesday, Feb. 4, 2026, at 2 p.m. ET at 1819 7th St. NW. Prescription Chicken will be opening in a shared kitchen with Astro Doughnuts & Fried Chicken and Saya Salteña, offering a rare look at how three local food brands collaborate under one roof. Media will have the opportunity to sample Prescription Chicken's signature dishes, capture visuals and interview the business's founders, workers and representatives from Astro Doughnuts & Fried Chicken and Saya Salteña.

Please let me know by Feb. 2 if you are interested in attending this event. I am happy to share additional details or answer any questions.

Thank you for your time and consideration.

Best,

Emma Daffner
